

SONG ONE

It's the start of a journey and this is my intro
It's gonna be a 24 hour music and song show
Listen up, be patient
I'll be here every hour

More than one chance to get this right
Gonna be up here all through the night
Follow my rule and let it unfurl
To my friends in time zones round the world

A song for Frank in Cuba
and Nelly in Montreal
Both starting their days at 8 am
Ola, Bonjour and welcome

Hey Frank how's your family, have you food is the sun shining, what's your mood
In Santiago have you learnt the guitar
Hey man, if you do, you'll soon travel far

Nelly Dimitrova searching for songs
Maybe there's one of mine that could belong
In the Canadian catalogue that you publish
With the Heartbreaks songs, that'd be my wish

A song for Frank in Cuba
and Nelly in Montreal
Both starting their days at 8 am
Ola, Bonjour and welcome

Your first question I'm sure is why
From the top of your tower, what can you spy
What are your rules, what will you say
How many instruments will you play

It's the start of my journey and I just don't know
But it's gonna be a 24 hour song show
So Listen up, be patient
I'll be here every hour
